

Imagine having a better way to help your small and medium-sized business customers gain greater control of their travel spend, while providing them the extra services they really need - all through an online business travel portal that bears your company's name, and requires minimal investment and effort on your side. Amadeus Business Travel Portal offers you just that - a comprehensive way to combine your in-depth experience and knowledge of your customer's needs with the proven, reliable and state-of-the-art Amadeus technology.

The Amadeus Business Travel Portal is a customizable online booking platform for Business Travel Agencies to expand and differentiate their offer for Small & Medium size companies, helping them to control their travel budget and offering them the extra services they need.

A business portal to meet the travel needs of Small & Medium Enterprises

Small to medium-sized companies are often left to their own resources when it comes to online travel booking. Most leisure oriented sites do not provide the business functionality that today's business traveller requires to follow the employer's preferred travel policy. Amadeus Business Travel Portal lets you offer the best of both leisure and business travel worlds in a powerful and easy-to-use portal designed to meet the unique needs of your small and medium-size business customers.

Promote your brand online, ensuring your customers can reach you anytime, any day, with booking capability around the clock. Best of all, you can roll out this new self-branded online portal in days - leveraging the power, flexibility and reliability of proven Amadeus technology.

What your customers get

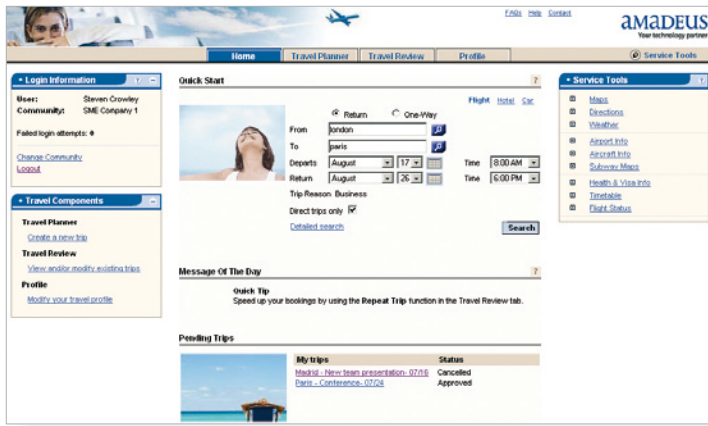

With Amadeus Business Travel Portal, you retain your customers as they will no longer have to shop around many sites to compare different options. They can be assured that they will obtain the most cost-effective selection aligned to their needs and business rules. And all within just a few clicks.

- > A wealth of travel options and easy-to-use online travel shopping tools on a single site
- > Industry leading price-driven comparison displays
- > Integrated access to more than 75 low cost carriers
- > Complete information on more than 70,000 hotels
- > The best car rentals
- > And online access to a broad range of corporate fares and deals

Better Control of Travel Spend

Small and medium-sized companies are often extremely price-sensitive in their travel planning, but price is not their only decision-making factor. With Amadeus Business Travel Portal, you will empower your customers to regain control over their business travel costs.

Regular online reports will allow you to help your customers to better understand their travel spend and patterns, which, together with online support of basic policies and trip approval procedures, will ensure their success and guaranteed savings.

One portal - hundreds of companies

Every aspect of setting up and administering an online booking system is made easy by Amadeus Business Travel Portal. Designed to help you get your small and medium-size business customers up and running in record time, with its administration templates, wizards and cloning features, you can configure and rollout new companies within your portal effortlessly.

Once you have a solution up and running for your customer, it is easy to keep it that way. Amadeus Business Travel Portal is simple to administer, with low portal maintenance costs through the use of automated administration and self-registration.
