

The General Shareholders' Meeting

The General Shareholders' Meeting is the highest body representing Amadeus Group's share capital and exercises the power reserved to it exclusively in corporate law and in the company's bylaws. According to these laws, the shareholders must meet at least once a year, within the first six months of each year, to debate and adopt agreements concerning its exclusive duties, which are the most economically and legally relevant. Among these are the appointment of Board members, the review and approval of the annual accounts, applying results, appointing external auditors, treasury stock and supervising the Board's activity. Both the law and the company's bylaws reserve the exclusive power of adopting other important agreements to the General Shareholders' Meeting such as: bylaw modifications, bond issues, mergers, etc.
