

Amadeus Corporate Sustainability Report production process

Planning. Discussion with content owners to select the most important issues to be reported, following GRI guidelines

Data gathering and first draft elaboration

Review by Corporate Communication, content owners and external verification company

Top management review

Global Reporting Initiative review and application level check

Presentation to Board and publication